Hospitals & Institutions (H&I):

Hello Family,

H&I is going well. We have an orientation set up for the jail on Oct. 11, 2012 at Rivermont Baptist Church on 122 Sunset Drive off Locust Lane at 7pm. We picked up another commitment for Dan River jail in Yanceyville Jack C. and myself have appreciation for those interested men and women can apply. When applications are returned will be getting a call from Brain Underwood abuse counselor. Thanks for allowing me to be of service

Mildred W.
H&I Chairperson

Public Relations (PR):

Hello Family,
October has been a productive month for public relations. Kim updated our meeting schedules and has kept our website updated as well. Please email her if you have any changes or events you want on the calendar or schedule. You can go on the www.southsidena.org to get contact information. On September 10, Alex S, Kim A, and myself attended a recovery expo and resented Narcotics Anonymous. It was very well attended and by doing this we got meeting lists taken to both of the colleges in Danville and a couple of other places where both younger and older addicts may meet. We were also asked to come and speak about NA in two other places.

Me and another addict in our committee wrote some public service announcements and I contacted Justin Loyd and asked him if they were still willing to run our announcements on the radio station. When I emailed him the PAs, he responded back not only are they on 104.5 FM, but he put them on 103.7. God is good!

I ordered literature last month to help refill the racks in Danville and Martinsville and to set up two new racks in South Boston. We also had to order literature for the recovery expo and the two upcoming events. I'm also going to have to be reimbursed for an ink cartridge for my printer. I've never needed one before, but NA is the only thing I use my printer for. I pray until next time we meet, you all will be safe in your journey.

In loving service...
Robin G,
Public Relations Chair

Policy Committee:

10/7/12
Policy Review Report

I have copies of the Policy for Review today as I have been in New Mexico and my printer went down and unable to mail the two copies requested. I have not received the financial policy as a document so made copies of what I had. Since the last meeting I have received no input on the policy.

Met today and approved the idea of January being the date for Elections. I would like to think that this policy would be ready for a vote by the groups by December.

PR also had concerns and briefly met to discuss how often they meet with the regional subcommittees. It was decided that they would at least meet with them when they meet within region 3 at least 1-2 times per year.

In Loving Service,

Mary Kay Berger

Literature Committee:

Hello Family,

Literature orders are going smooth. There is a new book available called Living Clean the Journey Continues. I will try to have more info at the next are service.

In Loving Service,

Gary

A New Hope:

Dear Family,

Our meetings continue to be small but well attended, with a great atmosphere of Recovery. We had a home group member celebrate multiple years in September and we have another this month on the 19th. Please help us celebrate. We have a $15.00 donation this month. As always, we thank our Higher Power and the Program for all it continues to Provide.

In Loving Service,
Larry H.

Living Clean the Journey Continues:

We are still doing well with our attendance. We have some people from Roxboro attending. The book is available for ordering. Go to <http://www.na.org/admin/includespaw2/uploads/pdf/catalogues/ProductNewFlashSept12pdf>. We have ordered books for our group and have several for sale. We have no donation this month.

ILS,

Gail F.

New Vision:

Hello Family,

All is well with New Vision this month. We had our 29th home group anniversary on September 29. We had a great turn out and everything went very well. We have no donation for this month.

In Loving Service,
Andrew D.

Stick and Stay:

Hello Family,

Things are good here at the Sick and Stay group. We have met our prudent reserve. We have a speaker coming from South Boston on October 21st with double digit cleantime. We have no donation at this time

In Loving Service,

OLD BUSINESS:

- Regional Motion 157-4 Taken to Home Group. Yes: 7 No: 0 Abstain: 2

NEW BUSINESS:

- Andrew brought up having an Area Speaker Jam in January and possibly having a Speaker Jam each quarter. The speaker jams would alternate between Danville, South Boston, and Martinsville. Mary Kay brought up the point of bidding on the regional speaker jam. Jack stated would call regional chair and this issue would be addressed more at the next area meeting.

- Gary submitted a budget and discussed that all subcommittees need to submit what they will need by October 20. This needs to be a realistic figure. Gary stated we are spending too much money at this time. Sub-committees must operate on their budget of $200.00 annually.
- Gary submitted 2013 budget to be taken back to home groups for review.

Meeting for next month: November, 4, 2012 in South Boston, VA

Motion to close given by Andrew and seconded by Letia

In Loving Service,

Andrew D.
