Lawson - due to the lack of attendance at our areas we need to as we visit different homegroups, we need to encourage them to send their representatives to the area meetings.

Lawson- also as you visit the various homegroups ask them do they have any changes to their meeting list schedule. In Danville Recovering Vigilantes now has the Monday meeting they got some type of rotating schedule, so we need to send that to Kaylee she's going to get with Dewey and we're going to try to get some new meeting lists printed because I don't think we've printed any since National Night Out.

H&I Report:

Hello Family,

We are still losing more volunteers than gaining. We continue to visit the women's jail on Tuesdays at 6 pm. There are still not enough volunteers to go in every Tuesday. The message is being carried into Sobrius on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month at 6:30 pm. I am still waiting for a response from the chaplain on when the orientation for volunteers will be scheduled. In Loving service Krista H. Love & Respect

Hey family! The New Years Bash was a success! We would like to thank all who attended and donated! A special thanks to the Homegroup of Living Clean The Journey Continues, for donating 5 Newcomer Packets! We were able to help 4 addicts seeking recovery! We only recouped $50 during the New Year's Day Bash after paying for the main meal, decorations and renting the facility. Activities is planning a fundraiser in March titled " Let's Taco About Recovery"! We will have mystery speakers, 50/50 raffle and an awesome taco bar! MORE WILL BE REVEALED! In Loving Service, Charles P Activities Chair
