Chairperson Report:

Area Chair's Report 8/4/24

I hope that we keep in mind that we have been put in our positions to take care of the Area's business at the request of our home groups. To do this we will need to have unity of purpose. This does not mean that we must all be buddies or agree on everything. That is we remember why we are all here... to take care of Area business period. I would like us to discuss the 1200 we have in our treasury over the 800-dollar prudent reserve. Please keep in mind that the area's funds are to be used to further carry our message to the addict who still suffers. Let us think how those monies could be best used to do just that.

In Loving Service,
Paul Hellwig

Hello Family! All is well with the phone line. We received 2 phone calls in July. We helped a lady find a domestic violence shelter. Also we helped a lady in South Boston understand the meetings and how we are an anonymous program in which she doesn't need to call ahead.
