Vice Chair Report:RCM Report:*H&I Report:

Greetings,

The H&I subcommittee met on October 1st at 1pm. We have 10 members in Attendance. We discussed the city farm commitment as far as whether we want to continue with this commitment. We have 2 volunteers who are willing to serve at the city farm twice a month so that is great so we can still carry the message into that facility. H&I chair will be putting a schedule together for city jail as well as city farm today to make sure everyone is aware of their scheduled dates to serve. Southern Virginia and the women's jail are doing well and nothing to report.

In loving service,

Deborah C
H&I Chair

Literature Report:

Callie will be taking $22.00 for last month's literature order to Donna. She will also be getting a check from her for the amount of $33.90 for last months literature order.

Activities Report:

$95.00 was given to Callie to give to Donna. This money was all proceeds from Unity Day.

Hello family,

The Unity Day event was wonderful, thank you everyone who made everything happen. The Chili Cookoff is set for Oct. 21 in Martinsville 106 Broad Street Martinsville, VA 24212 from 12p.m. to 5p.m. We will have an eating meeting. Also I am bringing $95.00 that was collected at Unity Day. I also will be requesting $50.00 to purchase bowls and raffle tickets. Can't wait to eat some amazing chili.

In loving service
